RE: FDIC Chicago Region Regulatory Conference Call Series

Dear Mr. Lawrence,

The FDIC Chicago Region will be hosting the fourth session of its 2006 Regional Regulatory Conference Calls on August 29, 2006. We continue to welcome your feedback and input relative to these teleconferences as we work together to serve as a reliable and responsive source of information and education about areas of interest to the financial industry. We also would appreciate any assistance you can provide in advertising this upcoming call. For your reference, an announcement of, and registration information regarding the teleconference, is posted on the FDIC's external website at http://www.fdic.gov/news/conferences/chicago\_reg\_2006/index.html

Our topic for the teleconference will be "Get the FACTs – Medical Privacy." The call will focus on the Protection of Medical Information provisions of the Fair Credit Reporting Act which became effective on April 1, 2006. This presentation will discuss these provisions and how they will impact institutions, and provide for a relevant dialogue on corresponding examination procedures. I will provide opening remarks and preside over the teleconference. The one-hour call will conclude with a question and answer session.

The teleconference will be held at 10:00 am (Central) on Tuesday, August 29, 2006. All FDIC supervised institutions located in the Chicago Region will be notified of the event via e-mail or fax. If you, or anyone from your office, would like to join in the call, please register by Monday, August 21, 2006. To register, please follow the instructions which we provide to banks as outlined below. On Wednesday, August 23, 2006, the toll-free number and pass code to use in order to participate in the call, along with a presentation outline, will be provided to those who register.

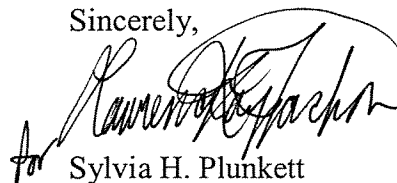

Registration Instructions:

Send an e-mail to chiconferencecall@FDIC.gov, with the following information included in the comments section:

1. The name of the bank for which you are registering
2. The bank location (city and state)
3. The first and last name of a contact person at the bank
4. The e-mail address to which you would like your confirmation delivered
5. The approximate number of bank staff participating
6. The number of separate phone lines you will be using to participate (To illustrate, if your institution plans to have three participants call in from separate locations and the senior staff will be at the bank listening on the speaker phone, you should indicate that four lines will be needed.)

If you have any questions concerning the upcoming teleconference, you may contact Review Examiner Teresa Sabanty at 312-382-7500. We look forward to your participation in this call or other calls in our 2006 series with topics relevant to the financial industry.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Sylvia H. Plunkett", with a large, stylized flourish at the end.

Sylvia H. Plunkett
